

KARUR SEEDING MEET

25th October 2024

The Seeding Meet of One Accord Forum was held at 6:30 p.m. at KRV Meridian Hotel, Karur, with attendees representing various fields, including entrepreneurship, church groups, education, and other eminent individuals from in and around Karur. A total of 58 people registered and gathered for the event. Mr. Mano Thangaraj, MLA, was the Chief Guest, joined by special invitees Mr. Chandra Mouli (Retired Deputy Commissioner of Police), Advocate Selwyn, Dr. Alexander (Principal In-Charge of Government Arts College, Karur), and Mr. Ronald, Chief Operating Officer of One Accord Forum.

The meeting opened with a prayer and worship led by Mr. Suresh, Director of Shiloh Music School. Following the praise and worship session, the guests were honored by senior leaders of the group.

Mr. Mano Thangaraj delivered an inspiring speech, highlighting the contributions of Christian missionaries to our nation and the role of Indian Christians in nation-building since Independence. He discussed the importance of both Common and Special Rights, stressing that now is a crucial time for unity. He urged the gathering to stand in solidarity for Christian minorities in Tamil Nadu. Mr.

Chandra Mouli and Advocate Selwyn enriched the meeting by discussing the current social & legal status and challenges faced by Christian minorities.

The attendees showed strong support, forming core members and expressing their commitment to contributing to the success of One Accord Forum's mission. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks and a closing prayer. Mr. Vivin, owner of AE Alfa and convener of the meeting, invited all participants to join for dinner.
